

Art Inventory, Self-Eval / Emo-Monotype

Artist	Title
Media Paper, Ink Period:	Size 6"x18" or 9"x 12"

Description Describe the subject and/or style.

Lines

Analysis Examine the noteworthy elements and principles employed.

Analyze your QUALITY OF LINE
direction -- length -- width --

Interpretation Infer about the content--what is the artist's message, idea, or feeling/mood.

See Title

Judgment Evaluate your print by writing about your success in communicating your chosen word by completing the one sentence summary.

My print shows _____ (emotion word)
(state & explain how/why direction, width & length fit your word)
because _____

Reflective Judgment If you could improve your print to make it more successful, what would you change or do differently? HINT: Think about the grading criteria.

Art Inventory, Peer-Eval / Emo-Monotype

Name:

Partner(s) Name(s):

Analysis Examine the noteworthy elements and principles employed in your partner's print.

Analyze your QUALITY OF LINE
direction --
length --
width --

Interpretation & Judgment Write about your printing partner's success in communicating a chosen word by completing the one sentence summary.

My partner's print shows _____ (emotion word)
(state & explain how/why direction, width and length fit the word)
because _____

Productivity & Accountability Use the below rating scale to honestly express progress in this important life learning.

Acquired new learning independently (seeking information, figuring it out)
 doing okay could do better need more information about this skill

Used process & tools to achieve the task

doing okay could do better need more information about this skill

Motivated & committed to achieve

doing okay could do better need more information about this skill

If you had a do-over, how would you your team improve?

